January 2nd Passport

Use this passport as a guide to all 1st Thursday destinations. All venues are open to the public from 5-8pm

1. DIVINE INSPIRATION GALLERY OF FINE ART
1528 State Street, 805-962-6444
Presenting the opening artists’ reception featuring the romantic seascapes of Michael Harvan and Sharon Schock. Harvan’s idyllic and finely detailed works evoke a time gone by in their romantic serenity, infused by his luminous seas and skies. Schock’s masterful use of light and shadow, as well as her controlled, yet loose and luscious brushstrokes, draw in the viewer.
www.divineinspiration.us

2. ARCHITECTURAL FOUNDATION
229 East Victoria Street, 805-965-6307
Celebrating a solo exhibition of photographs by Patrick Turner, quiet Light. Softly illuminated landscapes and seascapes reveal sculpted trees, rock formations and architectural elements in slightly mysterious, dream like sequences. www.afsb.org

3. SULLIVAN GOSS – AN AMERICAN GALLERY
7 & 11 East Anapamu Street, 805-730-1460
Featuring Zack Paul who combines ideas and perspectives from graphic design, architecture, LA’s Hard Edge School and the Constructivist practice of his Argentinian home.
www.sullivangoss.com

4. CHANNING PEAKE GALLERY
105 East Anapamu Street, 805-568-3990
1st Floor of the County Administration Building Threshold, an evocative new exhibition of water-themed photography by Allan Hancock. College film and video instructors: Michele Simonsen and Tim Webb explore the beauty of light flowing through water in the Trinity River in Northern California.
www.channingspace.com

5. KARPELES MANUSCRIPT MUSEUM
21 West Anapamu Street, 805-962-5322
Exhibition of diverse two dimensional media by members of the Santa Barbara Art Association.
www.rain.org/~karpeles/

6. ARTAMO GALLERY
11 West Anapamu Street, 805-568-1400
Presenting Ashleigh Sumner and her newest work in a solo exhibition, Street Wise. Ashleigh Sumner is a LA based actress and artist. Her paintings are inspired by urban environments, the lines, frenetic energy and movement of a metropolis. The raw, gritty textures of industrial areas are oddly beautiful to her and she tries to capture this essence in her work, integrating collage and incorporating text through a stenciling technique that has a rough “street art” feel.
www.artamo.com

7. LA BELLA VOCE
State and Anapamu Streets, SBMA Corner
A select group of singers from San Marcos High School’s Advanced Women’s choir, Enchante. They will be the featured choir at Carnegie Hall’s Winner’s Festival. This group is trying to raise money so that they can travel to this competition in March. Stop by and support these talented singers and contribute to making their dreams come true.

7. SANTA BARBARA MUSEUM OF ART
1130 State Street, 805-963-4364
Publicly Private: Enrico Natali and Doug Rickard explores the documentary intent and style of two photographers. Enrico Natali made surreptitious photographs on the New York subways in the 1960s. Doug Rickard’s 21st-century approach is to roam the forgotten streets of select cities without ever leaving his house.
Also on view, Newly Reinstalled Ridley-Tree Gallery: Focus on French 19th-Century Art. This exhibit offers a fresh perspective on the Museum’s extensive holdings in the area of European 19th-Century art, particularly that of France.
Van Gogh to Munch: European Masterworks from the Armand Hammer Foundation and Sarah Campbell Blaffer Foundation.
Key works from the Armand Hammer Foundation and Sarah Campbell Blaffer Foundation have been reinstalled in the Museum’s Preston Morton Gallery.
Family 1st Thursday- Bring the whole family to enjoy 1st Thursday together in SBMA’s Family Resource Center. Develop your own point of view while layering transparent reproductions of 1960’s photographs of everyday New Yorkers riding the subway inspired by Enrico Natali. Time 5:30–7:30pm www.sbma.net
Obervations
Remarks will be is a
the ethereal rare electric harp she performs pop, rock, bouzouki and accordion as well as piano and harp. On world music and instruments such as mandolin, balalaika, Santa Barbara since 1980. She has been performing Rebekah Scogin has been a performer and teacher in 900 S
11. REBEKAH SCORGIN
on February 3 rd.

www.sbartassoc.org

11. VALENTINES FOR OUR TROOPS
900 State Street, Marshall’s Patio

Open up your heart and design a Valentine-Gram for someone who truly deserves it. Create a special message or drawing for our brave troops overseas. Send a little love a long way. Stop by the American Heart Association

table to learn how you can participate in Wear Red Day on February 3rd.

11. REBEKAH SCORGIN
900 State Street, Marshall’s Patio

Rebekah Scogin has been a performer and teacher in Santa Barbara since 1980. She has been performing world music and instruments such as mandolin, balalaika, bouzouki and accordion as well as piano and harp. On the ethereal rare electric harp she performs pop, rock, folk rock, latin jazz and blues as well as classical.
www.a1harp.com

12. JANE DEERING GALLERY
128 East Canon Perdido Street, 805-966-3334

The gallery presents contemporary art by established and emerging artists from the US and Europe. Artists from the UK and Ireland are shown in collaboration with Purdy Hicks Gallery of London. Marie Schoeff’s exhibit, Traces features new drawings and prints.
www.janedeeringgallery.com

13. JAMES MAIN FINE ART
27 East de la Guerra Street, 805-962-8347

Featuring early Santa Barbara artists Edward Borein, Elizabeth Eaton Burton, Fernand Lungren, Douglass
Parshall, Frank Morley Fletcher and others. Will also offer antiques and estate jewelry. www.jamesmainfineart.com

14. SANTA BARBARA HISTORICAL MUSEUM
136 East de la Guerra Street, 805-966-1601

The Flying A: Silent Film In Santa Barbara. The Flying A will focus on the studio’s influential and prolific operation in Santa Barbara from 1911-1921. This exhibition will feature original artifacts, documents, photographs and a selection of original Flying A silent films which will play on our Sala Gallery Wall Theatre.

Family 1st Thursday: An art project for kids will be available in the lobby from 5-7pm.
www.santabarbaramuseum.com

15. SANTA BARBARA CITY HALL
City Hall Gallery
735 Anacapa Street, De La Guerra Plaza, 1st Floor Hidden Treasures of Santa Barbara. Remarks will be made by Mayor Helene Schneider at 6:15pm. Featuring, Rodger Dawson, Ken Pfeiffer and Fritz Pinney who capture the visible beauty of the Historic Downtown Cultural Arts District in an extraordinary way and awaken new enjoyment and appreciation for the beauty of the city.
www.sbartscommission.com

16. THE PROJECT FINE ART ZONE
740 State Street, Suite 1, 805-895-7759

Featuring, My Mother’s Sun. Also on display, work by The Project artists: Donna Ayscough, Liz Brady, Erika Carter, Theresa Carter, Lloyd Dallett, Ashley Dart, Lisa Pedersen, Virginia McCracken and Susan Tibbles.
www.theproject-fineartzone.com

17. BROOKE AND THE REVOLVERS
Paseo Nuevo Center Court, 5-7pm

A talented Santa Barbara Youth Pop and Rock Band which plays contemporary pop and classic rock songs.
Brooke Wallace is the lead singer, Austin Howard is the lead guitarist, Alana Sherrill is on rhythm guitar, Katelyn Mires plays Drums and Alana Sherrill is the band’s rhythm and bass guitarist.

18. SANTA BARBARA CONTEMPORARY ARTS FORUM
653 Paseo Nuevo, Upper Arts Terrace, 805-966-5373 San Francisco-based, integrated media artist and director Christine Marie strives to break new ground in her performance Multiplying Spectacles. Based on the history of mirrors, her large-scale projected shadow theater performance is accompanied by a live score, incorporating video effects and 3D stereoscopic shadow work. www.sbcacf.org

19. WALL SPACE GALLERY
113 West Ortega Street, 805-637-3898

Featuring Wisconsin Tavern League artist, Carl Corey.
While documenting and focused on his home state of Wisconsin, Corey’s images of local taverns, bars and clubs remind each of us of our favorite watering holes.
Corey will sign copies of his book, Tavern League.
www.wallspacegallery.com

20. BROOKS INSTITUTE GALLERY 27
27 East Cota Street, 805-690-4900

The Jesse Alexander + Patricia Houghton Clarke Connection has a sense of place and eyes wide open approach who focus their lenses on people across the world, surrounded by details and crafting a larger vision of our communities and ourselves. Observations is a discussion of place, of people and ideas.
www.facebook.com/brooksgallery27

THE ART CRAWL
The Santa Barbara Arts Collaborative will lead a curated Art Crawl through the 1st Thursday festivities. The curator for February will be Nathan Vonk from the Santa Barbara Art Blog. This month the Art Crawl will start in de la Guerra Plaza on the back steps of City Hall (735 Anacapa Street, then head around to the back). The Crawl starts at 5:45pm. www.sbartscommission.org
Before Michael Jackson Got Me Out of the House. Actress, screenwriter, director and author Darlene Craviotto will discuss and sign copies of her new book, An Agoraphobic’s Guide to Hollywood: How Michael Jackson Got Me Out of the House. Before Michael Jackson’s death, Craviotto was invited to write a Peter Pan film for Steven Spielberg to star Michael Jackson. Due to an auto accident years earlier, she had been battling agoraphobia and was afraid to leave the house. www.bookden.com.

Due to an auto accident years earlier, she had been perfect for a Valentine’s Day gift. Profits go to starving orphan children of Rwanda. Because of Hope (BOH) is an organization that supports widows and orphans in Uganda, Africa whose mission is to provide them with opportunities to increase their livelihood through sustainable means. BOH will sell handmade paper beads and hand-sewn purses. Beads of Esiteti is a fair-trade social business dedicated to empowering the Maasai community of Esiteti through the selling of their traditional beadwork. www.ultimatebagels.com

D. BELLA ROSA GALLERIES
1103-A State Street, 805-966-1707
Presenting the inventive and eclectic works of Van Scraonton and his exhibit, More Than a Pretty Picture. These two dimensional works utilize non-traditional mediums by an artist who grew up on the Abstract Expressionism movement in the 1950’s. Live guitar by Travis Loughridge. www.bellarosasasb.com

E. COAST RESTAURANT AND BAR
31 West Carrillo Street, 805-884-0300
Featuring the art of Academy Award winning filmmaker Fred Wolf whose art emphasizes compositional challenges in figurative situations. Light source and color choices add to the whimsy in a fantastical, if not surrealistic manner. Many of his paintings invite the onlooker into a moment of some untold, but familiar story. www.canarysantabarbara.com

F. PLUM GOODS
909 State Street, 805-845-3900
Plum Goods is proud to host artist Cristina Hobbs. Her unique paintings play with abstraction and figuration to evoke memory and imagination. www.plumgoodsstore.com

G. CASA GALLERY
23 East Canon Perdido Street, 805-965-6448
Romance and sensuality of sculpture will be the focus at CASA Gallery. Enjoy music with Harold Kono and bring your favorite love poem to share. Artists include: Elliott Chang, Rebecca Davis, JoAnne Duby, Chris Fletcher, Jorge Hernandez, Francine Kirsch, Nevin Littlehale, Kerry Methner, Chris Provenzano, Nina de Creeft Ward and John Whitehurst. www.casasb.com

H. SOJOURNER CAFE
134 East Canon Perdido Street, 805-965-7922
Featuring the Solstice Poster Contest entrants for 1st Thursday, wine tasting from Bradford Wine and live music. www.sojournercafe.com