The Natalie Espinoza Trio

Between 33 Jewels and Bryant & Sons Jewelers
The Natalie Espinoza Trio is a group of local musicians that have been playing around town at local venues and busking on State Street. They play pop music with a flare of jazz undertones and some soul/r&b. Natalie was highly influenced by jazz music growing up and that shows in her style of singing and arrangements. She ended up studying music here at the Santa Barbara City College and then transferred to get her Bachelor's Degree in music with an emphasis in voice. Her goal is to share music with everyone and to hopefully spread joy and love through her music.
